

AFTER YOUR EXPERIMENT

- Return your access badge to the Security at the entrance and pick up your documents.
- CNAO requires the PI to produce a report describing the activities carried on and related publications/conference papers before December of each year. Remember to involve the liaison scientist in the writing of any publication related to experiments performed at CNAO.
- Important: All users are required to acknowledge the use of CNAO facilities in any publications and to inform CNAO about any publications, thesis and other published materials. Users must also cooperate by supplying this information upon request.

Goods returning

Research groups are responsible to liaise with the courier for the shipping from CNAO.

For more information about the goods return procedure, please ask your local contact.

IN CASE OF BEAM UNAVAILABILITY

Users should be aware that beam unavailability might happen due to technical issues. In this case, a replacement shift will be assigned to Users.

Any additional cost related to travel, hotel stay or similar will not be refunded.
